

Exceptional Performance is expanding

By Dragan Milicevic on June 24, 2019

Dear clients, newsletter readers and Exceptional Performance friends,

I'm excited to announce two new office locations: Munich and Madrid. When I started Exceptional Performance nine years ago, most of my clients were based in central Germany. Over the years, my work has drawn me to other parts of Germany, Europe, Asia and the USA. In addition to Düsseldorf, I am now also offering one-on-one and group coaching sessions in Munich and Madrid.

Munich

Innere Wiener Str. 5
81667 Munich

Düsseldorf

Sternstraße 9 – 11
40479 Düsseldorf

Madrid

Calle Jesus del Valle, 7, 1-D
28004 Madrid

Digitilisation and new technologies have influenced the way we learn, and online training courses, video coaching and the like are now commonplace. For many clients, using video conferencing technology for coaching is a great way to stay flexible, save travel time and enjoy the benefits of familiar surroundings. Nonetheless, clients' demands for face-to-face time and hands-on coaching have increased – technology remains a good addition but cannot replace human interaction. Now, with three quite office locations, which are all centrally located and easy to reach by public transportation or by car, I can better meet your one-on-one coaching needs as they arise, and help you better achieve your coaching goals.

I look forward to working with you soon in Munich, Düsseldorf or maybe Madrid!
